

I am opposed to allowing the use of cell phones in flight. It's bad enough already that one is packed closely together for hours with a total stranger.